Ingliz tilida mavjud bo'lgan ko'plab frazeologik birliklar siyosatdonlar yoki jurnalistlar nutqlarida, og'zaki yoki yozma matnlarda paydo buladi va mana shu birlıklarning ifodaviy ekspressiya kuchli bo'lganligi, undagi emotsiyonal yuklama sezilarli bo'lganligi tufayli ular shu tilda so'zlashuvchi boshqa shaxslar tomonidan ham muomalaga qabul qilinadi.

"Horse blanket" turg'un birikmasi birinchi marta 1998 yil "Federal Document Clearing House" gazetasining 9 iyun sonida ishlataligan bo'lib uning ma'nosи "Katta xajmdagi, murakkab ko'rinishdagi jadval yoki axborot"dir. Bu frazeologik birikmada jadval komponenti otlar ustiga tashlanadigan "yopinchik"ka shaklan uxhash bo'lganligi uchun yaratilgan bulsa kerak. Quyidagi misollarni kurib chiqaylik.

1998 "General William Hartzog Holds News Briefing to Discuss Changes in the Army's Division Structure" There is a facing-page discussion of each in your handouts. There are some other materials that we've given you in terms of some articles that have been written lately about this particular division design-a full horse blanket, if you will, that's got numbers and specifics in it.

"Soldiers' Lingo Gives Everyday Language an Added Flair (Int.) O.C.T. is an acronym for observer-controller-trainer. These are usually Iraq veterans certified to act as teachers on immersion battlefields. OCTs use a "horse blanket," or large board listing all the training phases and the week they are supposed to be held.

"Ekonomist" jurnalining 1981 yil 28 fevral sonining 45- betida "Kuwait: Bedouin Eatowill" nomli maqola bosilgan. Usha maqolada biz "goat grab" iborasiga duch kelamiz. Uning ma'nosи "Yakin Sharkdagi to'y- tantanalarda mexmon yoki tantana ishtirokchilariga tortiladigan va odatda qo'l bilan yeyiladigan, go'sht va sabzavotlardan tayyorlangan taom" dir. Quyidagi misollarni ko'rib chiqaylik.

The electors munched their way to and from the polling booths, helping themselves to platters of mansef (impolitely described as “the goat grab”) and heaving hillocks of that favourite Kuwaiti sweet, jello.¹

A goat grab is basically a local tradition of having a big long table where they put out platters of rice, vegetables, and literally hunks of sheep that have been on a spit, roasting and so forth. You just dig in; you grab sheep or lamb, or fish, or what have you.²

Yangi Zelandiyada chop etiladigan “Dominion” gazetasining 1997 yil 16 dekabr sonini 8 betida “Election fight on Race Issue” nomli maqola bosilgan, maqolada “Dog whistle politics” birikmasini uchratish mumkin. Bu birikma yashirin, ochik aytilmagan, xufiyona bildiriladigan, siyosiy jihatdan xavfli, kodlashtirilgan ammo barcha uchun tushunarli bo‘lgan buzg’unchi g’oyani bildiradi, bu kabi g’oyalar saylov arafasida saylov kompaniyasi paytida muxoliflarni obro’sizlantirish uchun qo’llaniladi. Bu frazeologik birliklar o‘z variantiga ham ega, ”Dog whistle Issue” quyidagi misollarni o’rganib chiqish bu frazeologik birikmaning foydalanish ko’lami haqida to’liq tasavvurga ega bo’lish imkonini beradi.

Labor’s spokesmen on aboriginal affairs has already accused Mr. Howard of “dog-whistlepolitics.”—in rejecting a race heart election, he actually set a high- pitched signal to those attuned to hear it.

Every Election introduces a new phrase into the political lexicon and the dog- whistle issue is 2005’s early contribution. Coined by Linton Crosby, the strategic guru imported from Australia by Michael Howard, it refers to those policies that summon back voters who have gone astray.³

Ingliz tilidagi “cat face” turg‘un birikmasi juda serxosil va shu bilan birga uzoq umr ko’rgan frazeologik birliklardan hisoblanadi. Birinchi marta bu birikma 1890 yil Atlanta Constitution gazetasining 9 mart sonida berilgan: u meva sabzavot daraxt va shu kabilarning xayotiy tashqi qobig’i, sirtida yuz beradigan turli kasalliklar natijasida ularning gadir-budur va shu kabi ko’rimsiz xolga kelib qolishini bildiradi. Quyidagi misollarning tahlili bu frazeologik birlikning xaligacha faol ekanligini ko’rsatadi.

Yuqorida keltirilgan frazeologik birliklarning etimologik tahlili shuni ko’rsatadi-ki:

1. Til birikmalariga bo‘lgan kommunikativ extiyoj, til birligining yashovchanligining asosiy kafolatidir.
2. Til birligining ifodaviylik kuchi qanchalik yuqori bo’lsa uning yashovchanligi, tildagi umri shu qadar uzun bo’ladi.
3. 1890 yillarda paydo bo‘lgan frazeologik birliklar xozirgacha ishlatilishining asosiy sababi xayotda o‘xshash situatsiyalarni tez-tez takrorlanishi va ularni ifoda qilinishiga bo‘lgan extiyojning takrorlanib turishidir.
4. Frazeologik birliklar ma’nosidagi idiomatiklik, uni turli-tuman yangi diskurslarida nutqiy vaziyatda, ularning yangi-yangi qirralarini ochish yo‘li bilan ishlata olish kompetensiyasini namoyon etadi.
5. Yillar davomida turli yangi mualliflar, so‘zlovchilar tomonidan qayta - qayta ishlatilayotgan frazeologik birliklarning funksional semantik xususiyati o‘zgarsada, pragmalingvistik qiymati o‘zgarmaydi chunki har bir so‘zlovchining maqsadi umumiyligi bo’lsa-da u ifoda qiluvchi ma’no ko’lami turlicha bo’ladi.
6. Xronologizatsiyaning yana bir ijobiy tomoni shundaki, tilshunos yillar kesimida frazeologik birliklar ma’nosida yuz berayotgan turli kategorik o‘zgarishlarni kuzatishi va o‘zgarishlarning tabiatini, ularni keltirib chiqargan omillarini tahlil qilishi mumkin.
